

PET EMERGENCY INFORMATION CHECKLIST

If an emergency happened today, would someone else have the information and supplies they need to care for your pet? Use this checklist to prepare before you need it.

YOUR PET

- ☐ Pet's name
- ☐ Recent photo
- ☐ Species, breed, age and weight
- ☐ Microchip number and registry
- ☐ Distinguishing features

MEDICAL INFORMATION

- ☐ Medical conditions
- ☐ Allergies
- ☐ Current medications and dosages
- ☐ Vaccination information
- ☐ Important medical history

VETERINARY CONTACTS

- ☐ Regular veterinarian and phone number
- ☐ Nearest emergency veterinarian and phone number
- ☐ Nearest 24-hour emergency hospital
- ☐ Animal poison control service and contact information

EVERYDAY CARE

- ☐ Food brand/type and amount
- ☐ Feeding schedule
- ☐ Dietary restrictions
- ☐ Medication schedule
- ☐ Important behavioral or care instructions

EMERGENCY CAREGIVER

- ☐ Primary emergency caregiver and phone number
- ☐ Backup caregiver and phone number
- ☐ Where carrier, leash and supplies are kept
- ☐ How caregivers can access your home
- ☐ Written authorization for emergency veterinary care

INSURANCE & IMPORTANT RECORDS

- ☐ Pet insurance company
- ☐ Policy number
- ☐ Insurance contact and claims information
- ☐ Copies of important veterinary records
- ☐ Emergency payment plan or funds

EMERGENCY SUPPLIES

- ☐ Carrier, crate or secure leash/harness
- ☐ Several days of food and water
- ☐ Medications
- ☐ Bowls
- ☐ Waste or litter supplies
- ☐ Basic first-aid supplies
- ☐ Comfort item

KEEP IT ACCESSIBLE: Save a digital copy on your phone, keep a printed copy with your pet's emergency supplies, and make sure your emergency caregiver knows where to find it.

Save this now - before you need it.

Maya's Mission | Helping you connect with the animal protector inside of you.
Educational resource only. In an emergency, contact a veterinarian or appropriate emergency service.